SEND TWO HOT NOTES TO MEXICO

Wilson and Bryan Take Final Action.

REFUSE TO REGARD ELECTION AS LEGAL

United States May Now Give Aid and Sympathy to the Insurgents.

Mexico City, Oct. 15.—Rumors were current here that the American charge, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, was to be given his passports and that the Mexican government regarded the attitude of the United States as such that it could no longer continue to receive a Washington representative.
It was also said that President Wilson's personal representative, John Lind, now at Vera Cruz, will be asked to leave Mexico.

Washington, Oct. 15.—The United States government informed Provisional President Huerta that it looked with abhorrence and amazement upon his assumption of both executive and legislative powers in Mexico and that in view of his course could not regard as constitutional the elections planned for Oct. 26.

Two notes, the one strongly phrased and written by Secretary Bryan, inquiring about the safety of the imprisoned members of the Mexican congress, and the other drawn in forceful language by President Wilson himself, said to constitute the last efforts of the Washington government with the Huerta authorities by diplomatic means, were sent to the Mexican government.

Hoped for Free Election.
The negotiations through John Lind had proceeded to the point where the state department accepted the endorsement of Frederica Gamboa for the presidency as meaning the elimination of Huerta and where it was confidently hoped that a fair and free election would be held on Oct. 26.

Now, however, President Wilson has made it clear that the Washington government with the events of the last few days—the imprisonment of the deputies and the establishment of a dictatorship by Huerta—has lost all hope of seeing a constitutional election held by the Huerta regime.
The steps taken by the United States were formally communicated to all foreign governments. No further negotiations are planned through diplomatic channels and it would not be surprising if John Lind should return to the United States at once.

Cabinet Members Astonished.
Huerta's decrees proclaiming himself as in charge of the departments of interior, finance and war were received here and the text given out at the state department. The documents were read at the cabinet meeting and members of the cabinet expressed themselves as astonished at the audacity of General Huerta.

They were appraised by President Wilson of the nature of the two communications sent to General Huerta, through Charge O'Shaughnessy, and all voiced approval of the vigorous representations.

The cabinet meeting was about to adjourn when press dispatches announced that Senor Querido Mohedo, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, had characterized the American communication as "intemperate."

Official Washington is awaiting the formal reply being drafted by the Huerta administration.
Will Be Tried for Sedition.
Charge O'Shaughnessy reported that he had conveyed both communications and had been assured with respect to the imprisoned deputies that no violence would be done them, but that they would be tried for sedition.

It is the second note of the American government, which is said to be only 150 words in length, practically breaking off negotiations with Huerta, which is believed to have prompted Foreign Minister Mohedo's description, "intemperate."

Administration officials hold that with most of the members of the Mexican congress in jail, a prominent member of congress who dared to speak adversely to the Huerta administration still mysteriously concealed and the congress dissolved it is impossible for the world to believe that the Huerta group was capable of establishing or maintaining constitutional authority in the Southern republic.

As yet there is no concrete evidence that the Washington administration intends to use drastic measures.

Discourage Alarmist Views.

The White House has discouraged the heads of the army and navy from taking any steps that would give an alarmist impression.

Some officials said they would not be surprised if the refusal of the Huerta government to comply with promises made to John Lind would cause the Washington administration to consider throwing its support to the Constitutionalists in the north of Mexico.

This might carry with it a lifting of the embargo on arms and many senators think the Constitutionalists would soon triumph if they had such assistance.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan hitherto have opposed such a step, but informal communication within the last two weeks with the Constitutionalists has indicated that the Washington administration is scrutinizing the leaders of the Constitutionalists movement to determine what are their purposes and whether they would establish constitutional authority in Mexico.

It is confidently expected here that foreign governments generally will follow the lead of the United States in whatever steps taken.

BANKER DENOUNCES CURRENCY MEASURE

Says It Was Born in Caucus and Cradled in Politics.

New York, Oct. 15.—Declaring that the Owen-Glass currency bill, now before congress, was "born in a caucus and cradled in politics since its inception," A. Barton Hepburn, chairman of the Chase National bank of New York, attacked the Wilson administration measure.

Mr. Hepburn was one of the speakers at the national conference on currency here.

Senator Robert L. Owen, sponsor in the senate for the currency bill; Representative Carter Glass, who led the fight for the bill in the house of representatives; Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio, member of the house committee on banking and currency, defended the administration plan.

Arthur Reynolds of Des Moines, president of the American Bankers' association, and Mr. Hepburn spoke for the bankers opposed to the bill.

"I am not especially fearful of political control," said Mr. Hepburn. "I am not even especially fearful of incompetent control."
"But, inasmuch as this bill was born in a caucus and cradled in politics from its inception, business men, bankers and the public in general may be pardoned for having some misgivings whether politics may not have a part in its management."

TELLS STORY OF DISASTER

Captain Inch Says No Panic Occurred on Volturno.

New York, Oct. 15.—Captain Francis Inch, whose steamer, the Volturno, was burned at sea, with the loss of 136 lives, told his story of the disaster.

It is a plain seaman's tale, but in it line by line the horrors of the disaster and the terrible ordeal through which passengers and crew passed are brought out all the more clearly. He declared, however, there was no panic.

Captain Inch's story was sent by wireless from the Kronland, on which he is being brought to this port, to the offices of the Uranium line here.

ALL DEPENDS UPON PORT INSPECTORS

No Orders Issued to Detain Mrs. Pankhurst.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Commissioner General Caminetti of the immigration bureau issued a statement defending the attitude of the bureau towards Mrs. Pankhurst, the British suffragette, who is due to arrive in New York the latter part of this week. He said:

"The report that the bureau of immigration, or department or labor, or any officer of either had decided or intended that Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst will, on her arrival at New York, be held for examination by a board of special inquiry at Ellis Island is without foundation."

"The bureau and the department have no power to order admission or rejection except on appeal."

"At the ports the inspectors who first meet the incoming applicants are under the law and regulations independent of the boards of inquiry, as well as of the commissioner of immigration, in so far as holding applicants to appear before the boards of inquiry is concerned; and, in like manner, the boards of inquiry are independent of the commissioner."

VIEWS OF BRYAN AND CLARK VARY

Onlookers Believe the Hatchet Is Not Permanently Buried.

CAMPAIGN MAY DIG IT UP.

Underwood's Future a Puzzle to Wise-aces Who Think He Had Last Chance to Be Nominated For Presidency in 1912—Kentucky Representative Tells How to Get to Congress.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 15.—[Special.]—It has amused onlookers to notice that on several occasions lately it has been announced that Speaker Clark refused all offers to lecture because he felt that he could not leave Washington. Just about the time that Secretary Bryan started on his last trip a statement emanated from the speaker's office to the effect that Mr. Clark had sacrificed $50,000 by not going on the lecture platform.

The aforesaid onlookers, being more or less imbued with Sherlock Holmes qualities, believe that these little expressions show that the bitterness engendered at Baltimore in 1912 has not departed. Although there is a truce between Bryan and Clark, it is an armed truce, which will be broken if either should be a candidate for the presidency in the future.

Shelving Underwood.

The retirement of Oscar W. Underwood from the house is taken to mean that he has lost all hope of the presidency next time, that he expects Wilson to be nominated by the Democrats and, further, that in going to the senate the author of the tariff bill has "shelved himself," because no party takes a man from the senate.

But there are many contingencies. Underwood probably knows that 1912 was his best chance. But suppose he is beaten by Captain Hobson, a not unlikely supposition with Clayton and Hefflin in the race. Underwood retires to private life and away from all the turmoil of national politics. He may be kept in the public eye as governor of Alabama. Beyond 1916 there is 1920, and Underwood will be fifty-eight years old in 1920.

How to Get to Congress.

Congressman Sherley of Kentucky was talking, and Murdock of Kansas asked him:

"Will you take a Republican vote when you can get it?"
"Yes; I am willing any of them shall come over to the right camp."

"And you will not ask that they be Democrats when they come?" pursued Murdock.

"Why, no," replied Sherley.

"And you will take any kind of a vote because you want to get the men of your district behind you?"

"Unquestionably, because that is the price of a seat here," replied Sherley, at which there was an outburst of laughter.

"Oh, yes," went on Sherley, "and that is not a matter to laugh about. That is a fact. I know no way of getting here except by getting a majority of the voters of my district to send me here. Those who laugh may know of some other method by which to obtain a seat here, but I do not."

Then the laugh was on his side.

Williams Can't Help It.

John Sharp Williams simply can't help breaking into any senator's speech and telling some historical incident. Thus it happened the Mississippi senator invoked Hoke Smith's sarcasm one day when he interrupted the Georgia senator and told his incident.

"I thank the senator for anticipating me by his remarks," said Smith. "I was coming to that historical feature as a part of my own remarks, and I had about reached it. He has presented it in that clear and interesting way which he so often presents history to us."

Notice of a Filibuster.
There was a proposition to eliminate an amendment to the bill abolishing the commerce court which would at the same time abolish the judges. "If that goes out of the bill," remarked Senator Borah, "the debate of 1902 will go into the record."

Senator Borah, the debate of 1902 was able to put it there. The Idaho senator alluded to a voluminous debate on a similar proposition more than 100 years ago. The provision was not disturbed.

Country Does Its Share.
Every time there is talk about public buildings representatives of city districts point out the large postal receipts in their cities. "Why," said Mondell of Wyoming, "one would imagine from hearing the gentlemen talk that all these vast postal receipts came from billet doux passing back and forth across the city. They forget that it is not for the country, for the little towns, for the rural communities, those enormous postal receipts would never be gathered in the large cities."

"Wornout Senate."

When the friends of the Hatch-Hotchy bill were pressing their measure for consideration several senators protested against anything further being done at this time, which required a majority. "I appeal to the friends of the measure not to press this matter worn out senate," said Senator Borah, who is usually about the last man to cry quit when there is work.

Governor May Urge Legislature to Enact Alien Law.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Representative Frank Clark of Florida addressed a letter to Governor Park Trammell, urging him to call a special session of the Florida legislature to enact a law that would prohibit "Japanese and people of like races" from owning land within the state.

Mr. Clark said he was actuated by reports that Japanese had been acquiring property in his state.

SLEW FOUR CHILDREN.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Ellen Etheridge, second wife of J. D. Etheridge, a farmer, confessed she murdered four of her stepchildren within the last two months by administering poison, according to a statement given out by H. E. Dillard, prosecuting attorney.

Jealousy of her husband's affections for his eight children was assigned by the woman as the reason.

BIG SAVING IN ARMOR BIDS

Midvale Steel Company Gets Contract for Battleship.

Washington, Oct. 15.—New bids for armor for battleship No. 39 were opened at the navy department. The Midvale Steel company was given the contract at a total saving to the government of $111,874 under the identical bids for the same material submitted recently by the Midvale, Carnegie and Bethlehem companies.

In announcing the award Secretary Daniels declared his intention of continuing to urge the erection of a government armor plant.

Grounds.

"Has your husband given you grounds for divorce?" asked the woman who is always eager to sympathize.

"Yes," replied the one whose mind is on alimony. "Plenty of grounds, but I'd rather have some regular real estate."—Washington Star.

DEATH LIST PLACED AT OVER 400

NEW ANGLE IN SULZER TRIAL

May Mean Long Delay in Arriving at Verdict.

DEBATE IN SECRET SESSION

Counsel for Impeachment Managers Asks Court to Recommend to the Assembly the Bringing of a New Article in Event Certain Evidence Is Not Admitted.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The possibility of an indefinitely long delay in reporting a verdict as to the guilt or innocence of Governor Sulzer loomed up at his trial.

This was suggested when counsel for the impeachment managers asked that the court recommend to the assembly the bringing of a new article of impeachment in the event that the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, superintendent of public works, and Henry L. Morgenthau, ambassador to Turkey, should be found not to be relevant to any charge contained in the present articles.

Whether this testimony was relevant to article IV, which charges the governor with suppressing evidence before the Fawcett investigating committee, was the subject of debate in executive session and undecided when adjournment was taken.

The executive session will be continued and on the result of the court's deliberations will depend the question as to whether it will proceed to vote now or await the action of the assembly in the question of bringing the suggested new article of impeachment.

Should the latter course be adopted the future progress of the trial will be a matter of speculation. The question would at once arise whether the necessary majority of the assembly to vote the new article could be obtained.

The specific issue placed before the court in arguments of counsel was whether the Peck-Morgenthau testimony constituted a new charge against the governor.

Peck swore that the governor had asked him if called before the committee to deny under oath that he had given $500 for his campaign. Morgenthau testified that the governor had asked him in connection with his $500 contribution to "be easy with him."

Terrible Explosion in Welsh Colliery.

RESCUERS DISCOVER TWENTY LIVING MEN

Little Hope Is Entertained That Balance of Entombed Miners Are Safe.

Cardiff, Wales, Oct. 15.—When the fire in the Universal colliery was brought under control, following an explosion that caused a death list now estimated at more than 400, twenty miners were found alive in the bottom of the pit.

Encouraged by the hope that many more miners may be saved rescuers renewed their frantic efforts to clear the debris filled shaft and penetrate to the inner passageways of the mine, where they will either find living men entombed or bodies.

Mine authorities still hold to their earlier statement that it would have been impossible for many of those not now accounted for to have escaped from the explosion or the after damp.

There were heartbreaking scenes about the mouth of the main shaft, at the bottom of which the explosion occurred. Relatives of the men imprisoned or dead in the mine crowded about the shaft. Frantic women, carrying babes in their arms, beseeched the mine managers for news.

At one time the crowd about the mine was estimated at 40,000 persons, many of them having relatives or friends among those unaccounted for. Five thousand persons waited at Cardiff station for news from the mine. There was little forthcoming.

Twenty Come Out Alive.

There was a great shout as the twenty men were brought to the surface from the bottom of the pit. Men and women crowded about them in such numbers that police reserves were called out to hold back the throng. They were unable to say whether any others in the mine were alive.

The disaster bids fair, according to mine experts, to rival any similar accident in the history of the South Wales coal fields. Despite the fact that there are but sixteen known dead it is certain that the death list will run into the hundreds.

Shortly after the day shift of 931 men entered the mine there was a terrific explosion that shattered the works. As is usual in such cases the explosion was followed by the fatal after damp, to which the largest number of lives lost will be blamed.

Quick work by rescuers, most of them recruited from the ranks of the miners, resulted in the bringing of 200 miners to the surface. Later 300 more were rescued, but little hope was held out that many of the 400 still in the mine will be saved.

The rescue work, now that the fire is under control, is being pushed with vigor. Hospital conveyances are lined up at the mouth of the mine and all preparations have been made to care for possible injured miners who escaped the after damp.

Many coffins have also been brought to the scene of the disaster.

MANY BARELY ESCAPE DEATH

Street Car Crashes Through Approach to Fox River Bridge.

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 15.—Scores of persons barely escaped death when a street car crashed through the approach to the bridge over the Fox river. The accident occurred during the noon hour when the bridge and approach were crowded. There were several persons in the car.

Immediately after the accident the scene became one of confusion, with passengers fighting to get from the car and others attempting to disentangle themselves from the wreckage. Several were slightly injured.

Max N. D., Oct. 15.—Twenty-five thousand dollars' worth of notes were taken by burglars from the safe of the August Zentham store in New York city, very little cash being saved by the crooks, who also robbed E. "The annual report will show that the gross earnings of the Wabash in the last fiscal year were the largest in its history," said President Delano.

ALL DEPENDS UPON
PORT INSPECTORSNo Orders Issued to Detain
Mrs. Pankhurst.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Commissioner General Caminetti of the immigration bureau issued a statement defending the attitude of the bureau towards Mrs. Pankhurst, the British suffragette, who is due to arrive in New York the latter part of this week. He said:

"The report that the bureau of immigration, or department or labor, or any officer of either had decided or intimated that Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst will, on her arrival at New York, be held for examination by a board of special inquiry at Ellis Island is without foundation."

"The bureau and the department have no power to order admission or rejection except on appeal."

"At the ports the inspectors who first meet the incoming applicants are under the law and regulations independent of the boards of inquiry, as well as of the commissioner of immigration, in so far as holding applicants to appear before the boards of inquiry is concerned; and, in like manner, the boards of inquiry are independent of the commissioner."

SYLVIA PANKHURST JAILED

Second Attempt to Arrest Suffragette Proves Successful.

London, Oct. 15.—Sylvia Pankhurst, central figure in a fierce struggle Monday night between police and militant suffragettes, was arrested when about to enter the Popular Town hall to address another meeting.

The militants attempted to rescue her, but the police took her to Holloway jail.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 15.—M. M. Neely, Democrat, was elected to congress in the special election in the First district held to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of John W. Davis, Democrat, now solicitor general of the United States. J. G. Hearne, Republican, made a close fight, with G. A. Laughlin, Progressive, running third.

CAMPAIGN MAY DIG IT UP.

Underwood's Future a Puzzle to Wiseacres Who Think He Had Last Chance to Be Nominated For Presidency in 1912—Kentucky Representative Tells How to Get to Congress.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 15.—[Special].—It has amused onlookers to notice that on several occasions lately it has been announced that Speaker Clark refused all offers to lecture because he felt that he could not leave Washington. Just about the time that Secretary Bryan started on his last trip a statement emanated from the speaker's office to the effect that Mr. Clark had sacrificed $50,000 by not going on the lecture platform.

The aforesaid onlookers, being more or less imbued with Sherlock Holmes qualities, believe that these little expressions show that the bitterness engendered at Baltimore in 1912 has not departed. Although there is a truce between Bryan and Clark, it is an armed truce, which will be broken if either should be a candidate for the presidency in the future.

Shelving Underwood.

The retirement of Oscar W. Underwood from the house is taken to mean that he has lost all hope of the presidency next time, that he expects Wilson to be nominated by the Democrats and, further, that in going to the senate the author of the tariff bill has "shelved himself," because no party takes a man from the senate.

But there are many contingencies. Underwood probably knows that 1912 was his best chance. But suppose he is beaten by Captain Hobson, a not unlikely supposition with Clayton and Hedlin in the race. Underwood retires to private life and away from all the turmoil of national politics. He may be kept in the public eye as governor of Alabama. Beyond 1916 there is 1920, and Underwood will be fifty-eight years old in 1920.

How to Get to Congress.

Congressman Sherley of Kentucky was talking, and Murdock of Kansas asked him:

"Will you take a Republican vote when you can get it?"

"Yes; I am willing any of them shall come over to the right camp."

"And you will not ask that they be Democrats when they come?" pursued Murdock.

"Why, no," replied Sherley.

"And you will take any kind of a vote because you want to get the men of your district behind you?"

"Unquestionably, because that is the price of a seat here," replied Sherley, at which there was an outburst of laughter.

"Oh, yes," went on Sherley, "and that is not a matter to laugh about. That is a fact. I know no way of getting here except by getting a majority of the voters of my district to send me here. Those who laugh may know of some other method by which to obtain a seat here, but I do not."

Then the laugh was on his side.

Williams Can't Help It.

John Sharp Williams simply can't help breaking into any senator's speech and telling some historical incident. Thus it happened the Mississippi senator invoked Hoke Smith's sarcasm one day when he interrupted the Georgia senator and told his incident.

"I think the senator for antipathy to me by his remarks," said Smith. "I was coming to that historical feature as a part of my own remarks, and I had about reached it. He has presented it in that clear and interesting way which he so often presents history to us."

Notice of a Filibuster.

There was a proposal to eliminate an amendment to the bill abolishing the commerce court which would at the same time abolish the judges. "If that goes out of the bill," remarked Senator Borah, "the debate of 1902 will go into the record as a physical impossibility to put it there. The Idaho senator alluded to a voluminous debate on a similar proposition more than 100 years ago. The provision was not disturbed."

Country Does Its Share.

Every time there is talk about public buildings representatives of city districts point out the large postal receipts in their cities. "Why," said Mondell of Wyoming, "one would imagine from hearing the gentlemen talk that all these vast postal receipts came from billet dous passing back and forth across the city. They forget that it is we who are not for the country, for the little towns, for the rural communities, those enormous postal receipts would never be gathered in the large cities."

"Wornout Senate."

When the friends of the Hatch-Hetchy bill were pressing their measure for consideration several senators protested against anything further being done at this time, which required a quorum. "I appeal to the friends of the measure not to press this matter at a worn out senate," said Senator Borah, who is usually about the last man to cry quit when there is work.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Representative Frank Clark of Florida addressed a letter to Governor Park Trammell, urging him to call a special session of the Florida legislature to enact a law that would prohibit "Japanese and people of like races" from owning land within the state.

Mr. Clark said he was actuated by reports that Japanese had been acquiring property in his state.

SLEW FOUR CHILDREN.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Ellen Etheridge, second wife of J. D. Etheridge, a farmer, confessed she murdered four of her stepchildren within the last two months by administering poison, according to a statement given out by H. S. Dillard, prosecuting attorney. Jealousy of her husband's affections for his eight children was assigned by the woman as the reason.

BIG SAVING IN ARMOR BIDS

Midvale Steel Company Gets Contract for Battleship.

Washington, Oct. 15.—New bids for armor for battleship No. 39 were opened at the navy department. The Midvale Steel company was given the contract at a total saving to the government of $111,874 under the identical bids for the same material submitted recently by the Midvale, Carnegie and Bethlehem companies.

In announcing the award Secretary Daniels declared his intention of continuing to urge the erection of a government armor plant.

SULZER TRIAL

May Mean Long Delay in Arriving at Verdict.

DEBATE IN SECRET SESSION

Counsel for Impeachment Managers Asks Court to Recommend to the Assembly the Bringing of a New Article in Event Certain Evidence Is Not Admitted.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 15.—The possibility of an indefinitely long delay in reporting a verdict as to the guilt or innocence of Governor Sulzer loomed up at his trial.

This was suggested when counsel for the impeachment managers asked that the court recommend to the assembly the bringing of a new article of impeachment in the event that the testimony of Duncan W. Peck, superintendent of public works, and Henry L. Morgenthau, ambassador to Turkey, should be found not to be relevant to any charge contained in the present articles.

Whether this testimony was relevant to article IV, which charges the governor with suppressing evidence before the Fawley investigating committee, was the subject of debate in executive session and undecided when adjournment was taken.

The executive session will be continued and on the result of the court's deliberations will depend the question as to whether it will proceed to vote now or await the action of the assembly in the question of bringing the suggested new article of impeachment.

Should the latter course be adopted the future progress of the trial will be a matter of speculation. The question would at once arise whether the necessary majority of the assembly to vote the new article could be obtained.

The specific issue placed before the court in arguments of counsel was whether the Peck-Morgenthau testimony constituted a new charge against the governor.

Peck swore that the governor had asked him if called before the committee to deny under oath that he had given $500 for his campaign. Morgenthau testified that the governor had asked him in connection with his $500 contribution to "be easy with him."

Terrible Explosion in Welsh Colliery.RESCUERS DISCOVER
TWENTY LIVING MENLittle Hope Is Entertained That Balance of Entombed Miners Are Safe.

Cardiff, Wales, Oct. 15.—When the fire in the Universal colliery was brought under control, following an explosion that caused a death list now estimated at more than 400, twenty miners were found alive in the bottom of the pit.

Encouraged by the hope that many more miners may be saved rescuers renewed their frantic efforts to clear the debris filled shaft and penetrate to the inner passageways of the mine, where they will either find living men entombed or bodies.

Mine authorities still hold to their earlier statement that it would have been impossible for many of those not now accounted for to have escaped from the explosion or the after damp. There were heartbreaking scenes about the mouth of the main shaft, at the bottom of which the explosion occurred. Relatives of the men imprisoned or dead in the mine crowded about the shaft. Frantic women, carrying babes in their arms, beseeched the mine managers for news.

At one time the crowd about the mine was estimated at 40,000 persons, many of them having relatives or friends among those unaccounted for. Five thousand persons waited at Cardiff station for news from the mine. There was little forthcoming.

Twenty Come Out Alive.

There was a great shout as the twenty men were brought to the surface from the bottom of the pit. Men and women crowded about them in such numbers that police reserves were called out to hold back the throng. They were unable to say whether any others in the mine were alive.

The disaster bids fair, according to mine experts, to rival any similar accident in the history of the South Wales coal fields. Despite the fact that there are but sixteen known dead it is certain that the death list will run into the hundreds.

Shortly after the day shift of 931 men entered the mine there was a terrific explosion that shattered the works. As is usual in such cases the explosion was followed by the fatal after damp, to which the largest number of lives lost will be blamed.

Quick work by rescuers, most of them recruited from the ranks of the miners, resulted in the bringing of 200 miners to the surface. Later 300 more were rescued, but little hope was held out that many of the 400 still in the mine will be saved.

The rescue work, now that the fire is under control, is being pushed with vigor. Hospital conveyances are lined up at the mouth of the mine and all preparations have been made to care for possible injured miners who escaped the after damp.

Green Bay, Wis., Oct. 15.—Scores of persons barely escaped death when a street car crashed through the approach to the bridge over the Fox river. The accident occurred during the noon hour when the bridge and approach were crowded. There were several persons in the car.

Immediately after the accident the scene became one of confusion, with passengers fighting to get from the car and others attempting to disentangle themselves from the wreckage. Several were slightly injured.

NEW GEM AMONG JEWELS.

Experts Declare the Heliodor Ranks With Ruby and Emerald.

A new gem, given the name of "heliodor" and found in German South Africa has taken its place among the jewels, says the Popular Mechanics Magazine. The German kaiser recently presented one of the new stones to the kaiserin. This discovery of the new stone was made by the governor and director of the German Colonial society while he was traveling in German South Africa. In the sand near the railway between Swakopmund and Windkuk he found a large crystal, rough and unpromising in appearance. He carried it with him to Germany and had it cut and polished in a diamond cutting factory. The result was a surprisingly clear, pale aquamarine of great brilliancy.

The German colonial office immediately took possession of the ground upon which the crystal was found, and a great number of the crystals are now making their appearance upon the German market. Experts agree that the new gem is entitled to rank with the ruby and emerald.

Heliodor is a golden yellow stone in the daylight and turns green at night under artificial light.

NEW GEM AMONG JEWELS.

Experts Declare the Heliodor Ranks
With Ruby and Emerald.

A new gem, given the name of "heli-odor" and found in German South Africa has taken its place among the jewels, says the Popular Mechanics Magazine. The German kaiser recently presented one of the new stones to the kaiserin. This discovery of the new stone was made by the governor and director of the German Colonial society while he was traveling in German South Africa. In the sand near the railway between Swakomund and Windkuk he found a large crystal, rough and unpromising in appearance.
He carried it with him to Germany and had it cut and polished in a diamond cutting factory. The result was a surprisingly clear, pale aquamarine
of great brilliance.

The German colonial office immediately took possession of the ground upon which the crystal was found, and a great number of the crystals are now making their appearance upon the German market. Experts agree that the new gem is entitled to rank with the ruby and emerald.
Heliodor is a golden yellow stone in the daylight and turns green at night
under artificial light.

Facing a Serious Proposition

The man or woman who has kidney trouble is facing a serious proposition, where grave complications readily follow neglect. Foley's Kidney Pills are an honest curative medicine that once taken into your system mean restored kidney and bladder action,
and a return of health and strength.

A Cure For Hiccups.

Fill a glass tumbler with clear, cold water and place on a table. Then let the patient stand where he or she can look directly into the glass and fix the attention about the center of the bottom of the glass for about a minute, when the patient will find that the hiccups have entirely disappeared.
This has been known to cure the most violent cases of this uncomfortable disorder.—London Family Herald.

Adenoids are a Menace to Children

Adenoids result from a succession of colds in babies and young children.
They spoil the mental and physical life of a child. The condition that causes them may easily be avoided by careful parents. Quickly and thoroughly cure all colds and throat irritations by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and adenoids will not develop. H. P. Dunn.—Advt. mwf

BRAINERD TRIES NEW PRECEDURE

Two Culpits Sentenced to Ten Days

OFFICER BARNEY IN CHARGE

Judge J. H. Warner's Plan of Having Prisoners Work for Their Keep Given a Trial

The plan of Judge J. H. Warner in having jail sentences worked out on the streets and thus compelling a man to pay for his keep, is now undergoing a trial.

Jake Mollanen and John McCarthy sentenced to 10 days each, are working on Brainerd's streets under the supervision of Officer Barney.

Last night the jail was filled to overflowing. All bunks were occupied. It is believed that wide publicity of the above method of handling jail sentences will cause Brainerd to gain a reputation which will speedily diminish the jail population.
The usual floater driven from the cities will carefully preserve the name of Brainerd for reference and will take exceedingly good care to float
on and past Brainerd to some more inviting community.

CHARTER IS LEGAL

Little Falls Plan of Commission Government, Resembling Brainerd, Declared Legal

N. N. Bergheim, attorney for the charter commission, has received an opinion in which the attorney general passes on the legality of the charter which is to be submitted to the voters Oct. 28. A copy of the charter was sent to the attorney general's office and the opinion is that the charter is constitutional. A former ruling was that administrative but not legislative powers could be delegated to a city manager and the charter prepared by the Little Falls commission is held to be constitutional.—Little Falls Transcript.

ROBBERY AT DEPOT

Nick Jacobet, Formerly of Barrows, Dozing in Waiting Room, Assaulted and Robbed

Nick Jacobet, who claims to have been working for some time at Barrows, was assaulted and robbed at the depot men's waiting room yesterday afternoon. Jacobet was on his way to Duluth.

He claims that while half asleep
two men struck him on the head, tore his watch from his vest and made him get away. Jacobet bears an ugly cut over his left eye and his face is discolored where he was struck.

He had two watches. The old one he used while mining was left him.
His fine Sunday watch which was conspicuously marked with a nice chain was torn from its fastenings.

Officer Schulte was on the scene
and held Jacobet to give his testimony. The two assailants had fled down the track. Schulte, on the description given him, arrested one suspect who was lodged in jail.

Jacobet wanted to continue his journey to Duluth, but was held over because without a complaining witness there would be little case left.

and Woodwork Painted

At the time Mrs. Marion Smades, sister of J. C. Barber, was taken ill and the Sisters of St. Joseph's hospital nursed her, Mr. Barber took a great interest in the institution.

He saw that the rear entrance to the hospital needed new steps and other repairs and he authorized the Mother Superior, Sister Jane, to have the necessary changes made.

A new cement foundation was placed under the rear porch, broad,
comfortable cement steps were added,
the lower section or main floor of the porch was newly built and all woodwork was painted.

The improvements are noticeable and the kindness and generosity of Mr. Barber are appreciated by all connected with the hospital. The Sisters are profuse in their expressions of gratitude for the kindly manner in which Mr. Barber suggested the changes to be made at his expense and will ever hold him in grateful remembrance.

ARRANGING FOR BUSH BANQUET

D. A. Peterson and T. H. Considine
the Committee Planning the Celebration

BANQUET AT THE RANSFORD

Parade to be Snapped by Moving Picture Machine—Dance at Gardner Hall

D. A. Peterson and T. H. Considine, managers of Brainerd baseball teams of 1912 and 1913 respectively,
are the committee which is perfecting arrangements for the banquet and celebration in honor of Leslie Bush.

A reception committee will meet the pitcher at the train and take him to his home, the band meeting the train. The parade will be held in the day time so as to enable the moving picture operator to snap the procession. The band will be at the head, followed by autos bearing Bush,
the family, city officials and others.

Ed. Rogers, a great friend of Bush, will probably attend and if possible
some of the Chippewas may be present to lend a touch of color to the moving pictures.

The banquet will be at the Ransford, with plates for 250 at $1 each.
A program of speaking is being arranged.

After the banquet there will be a dance at Gardner hall. The date for the festivities, said Mr. Peterson, who addressed the gathering of fans at Coffrain & Cook's barber shop, has not been definitely announced. It would be given out, say 48 hours before the event.

Mr. Peterson outlined as above giving the preparations made and everybody was satisfied at the progress attained. Money is being raised to pay incidental expenses such as band hire, etc. George H. Gardner has offered the Gardner auditorium at a low figure.

With the statement made by Mr.
Peterson, it shows that all details are being carefully looked after and it now gives all a chance to unite with the committee and by unanimous cooperation make of it a grand celebration.

Bush to Start Billiard Room

Philadelphia, Oct. 14—The majority of those world champion Athletics, who today were each mailed a check for approximately $3,280, are going to use their winnings in buying farms, investing it in business, educating themselves or laying it aside for the rainy day, while a few of them are going to spend a small part of it doing such frivolous things as taking a trip abroad or buying a new automobile.

In an interview Bush said: "I'll use about $1,000 establishing a billiard room in Brainerd. The rest goes into a farm."

"The Girl in The Taxi"

In announcing for his patrons
"The Girl in the Taxi," Manager Hall of the Brainerd opera house is offering the biggest laughing, classy comedy of two hemispheres. Nothing of this nature has ever been given in theatres for public approval that can equal the record of "The Girl in the Taxi." London is now enjoying its second years' run—Paris couldn't get enough of it, while New York like Chicago, Boston, San Francisco and all other cities have received it with open arms. We hear of it in Australia and this summer finds a company in Japan, and China playing it with success. Think of this record.
Don't you think Manager Hall did well in getting it to play here? Just take an honest tip; engage you seats
now and if you don't whistle its merry songs and laugh until you are laughed out; then go and see a doctor for you must be sick and very sick. In Brainerd Sunday, Oct. 19.

MOTHER! THE CHILD

IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

Don't hesitate. A laxative is necessary if tongue is coated, breath bad or stomach sour

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves
a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if the tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste.
When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well,
playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;"
then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled.—Advt.

MINNESOTA LOOKS BEST

Former Pine River Business Man
Ends Location Search on Reaching Minneapolis

"The Pacific coast is 10 per cent
climate and 90 per cent inflater valuation," said George J. Silk of Pine River, Minn., today. Mr. Silk sold out at Pine River in July and took an extended trip through the west looking for a new location. He is back in Minneapolis today, determined to stay in Minnesota and cease looking for something better.

"I only wish every Minnesota man could take the trip I have taken and see what I have seen," said Mr. Silk.
"He would come back a better booster for Minnesota, and would get over the notion that the grass is greener over in the next posture."

"Conditions are not good in our northwestern states, but on the Canadian side they are far worse. Values are away out of sight and there isn't the business to support them.
The Canadian west is suffering a great money stringency. Money sharks are getting as high as 5 per cent a month interest from people who simply must have money, and there is hardly any money loaned at less than 10 per cent. Since last March 30,000 residents of Vancouver have left for the states, some 14-000 of them being Americans going back to 'God's country.' Those are government figures, and they do not represent travelers, but actual residents changing their location."

"The western Canada farmers are harvesting a good crop this year, the first one they have saved from frost in three years, and the railroads are absolutely powerless to handle it.
About 75 per cent of the crop is being threshed, and I saw where farmers have been digging pits, lining them with tar paper, and dumping their grain into them because there is no other place to put it. Eight out of ten farmhouses seen from the railroad are vacant, with the windows broken in."

"The west has been overplayed and a reaction is coming. Seattle's railroad tonnage shows a decrease of 33 1-3 per cent this year. I was through Washington and Oregon and found things very dull. I had friends in business in almost every place I visited and they all told me they would like to come back to Minnesota in a hurry if they could only get loose."—Minneapolis Journal.

The Sheik and His House.

When the French came into contact with the Bedouin in Algeria it was thought that a ready way of civilizing him would be to assist him to build himself a permanent habitation. A sheik who was thus favored was full of gratitude to the French engineers who had built him a house.

"Since my house was finished," he said, "I have not lost a single sheep. I lock them up in my house every night, and next morning I find them all in safety."

"Then where do you sleep yourself?" asked an officer in amazement.

"Oh, for myself, a sheik can live only in his tent!" said the other, with dignity.

Judge J. H. Warner's Plan of Having

The plan of Judge J. H. Warner in having jail sentences worked out on the streets and thus compelling a man to pay for his keep, is now undergoing a trial.

Jake Mollanen and John McCarthy sentenced to 10 days each, are working on Brainerd's streets under the supervision of Officer Barney.

Last night the jail was filled to overflowing. All bunks were occupied. It is believed that wide publicity of the above method of handling jail sentences will cause Brainerd to gain a reputation which will speedily diminish the jail population. The usual floater driven from the cities will carefully preserve the name of Brainerd for reference and will take exceedingly good care to float on and past Brainerd to some more inviting community.

"Conditions are not good in our northwestern states, but on the Canadian side they are far worse. Values are away out of sight and there isn't the business to support them. The Canadian west is suffering a great money stringency. Money sharks are getting as high as 5 per cent a month interest from people who simply must have money, and there is hardly any money loaned at less than 10 per cent. Since last March 30,000 residents of Vancouver have left for the states, some 14,000 of them being Americans going back to 'God's country.' Those are government figures, and they do not represent travelers, but actual residents changing their location."

"The western Canada farmers are harvesting a good crop this year, the first one they have saved from frost in three years, and the railroads are absolutely powerless to handle it. About 75 per cent of the crop is being threshed, and I saw where farmers have been digging pits, lining them with tar paper, and dumping their grain into them because there is no other place to put it. Eight out of ten farmhouses seen from the railroad are vacant, with the windows broken in."

"The west has been overplayed and a reaction is coming. Seattle's railroad tonnage shows a decrease of 33 1-3 per cent this year. I was through Washington and Oregon and found things very dull. I had friends in business in almost every place I visited and they all told me they would like to come back to Minnesota in a hurry if they could only get loose."—Minneapolis Journal.

To Make Vinegar.

Save the parings and cores of apples and put them in a jar with warm water enough to more than cover them. Set in a warm place for several days; then strain and add one pint of molasses to a gallon of the water. Put in a jar, tie a thin cloth over it, keep in a warm place and in a few weeks this will be good vinegar.—National Magazine.

THE SMOOTH HANDLE.

Everything has two handles, one by which it may be borne, another by which it cannot. If your brother acts unjustly, do not lay hold on the affair by the handle of justice, for by that it cannot be borne, but rather by the opposite, that he is your brother, brought up with you, and thus you will lay hold on it as it is to be borne.—Epictetus.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it incurable, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Make Your Children's School Work A Pleasure This Fall

Imagine, if you please, your own discomfort in trying to work in an ill-fitting pair of shoes. Your children exert themselves very strenuously, especially at school. As a rule boys and girls don't growl about foot trouble. Their fancy begins and ends with exterior appearance of shoes. Therein lies the danger. A shoe salesman bent on selling, regardless, might do permanent injury to a child's feet.

Selz Waukenphast and Liberty Bell shoes for boys and girls are manufactured over foot form lasts by skilled workmen, using the same effort and care that characterizes Selz as a positive leader in the shoe manufacturing industry of the world. They are sold exclusively in this store and fitted by men who know how. This appeals to most people who give such matters serious thought.
